Group Size – Important Information
The maximum group size for this tour is 16. The group will be led by an experienced local guide and dedicated transport will be provided. As tourism facilities in West Africa are limited and some tours including those that include a festival can be popular, it should be noted that on occasions other tour groups will be travelling in the region and may be following the same or a similar itinerary. They may also be staying at the same hotels.

Ivory Coast Revealed
For thirty years Ivory Coast was an exemplar among newly independent West African states. Stability, prosperity and ethnic cohesion reigned. And then, between 2002 and 2011, they didn’t. However, calm has returned, a new president is in office, and the most recent elections were declared ‘free and fair’ by observers. The country’s continuing ethnic, religious and linguistic diversity is remarkable, as is the contrast between sophisticated city life and that of tribal areas. If West Africa can be conflated into one state, Ivory Coast is it. African, French-speaking, Islamic and Christian, a place for fantastic chicken yassa and also perfect steak frites. Ancient and modern, rich and poor, efficient and chronically flawed, ugly and beautiful - 11-days are not nearly enough.

Tour itinerary notes
While our intention is to adhere to the day-by-day itinerary as printed below, a degree of flexibility is built in. Overnight stops may vary from those suggested and on occasions alternative accommodation, of a similar standard to that named below, will be used. Although we try to be as accurate as possible, distances and timings indicated in the itinerary are meant as guidelines only and can substantially vary from one departure to another one depending on local safety initiatives, road conditions, road traffic and other unforeseen events.

Tour Guide
Our guides are a key strength, chosen for their knowledge of and passion for the areas in which they work. On this tour, your guide may be local or European but they will be based in the region. We may also you specialist guides local to their specific region. Unlike some companies it should be noted we do not send a guide or tour leader from Undiscovered Destinations in the UK as we have every confidence in our locally appointed representative who is responsible for operating the tour on our behalf. Where possible you will have the same guide throughout your trip but on occasions it may be necessary to change the guide at one or more points during the tour.

Depending on the mix of nationalities in the group, and the group size, the guiding may be conducted in English plus additional languages, and there may be more than one guide with the group.

Itinerary

Day 1 - Arrival in Abidjan
Arrive in Abidjan where you will be met and transferred to your hotel. The evening is at leisure. Overnight Hotel Azalai or similar. No guiding or meals are included today.

Abidjan
Cote d’Ivoire’s largest city, Abidjan is the economic powerhouse of Cote d’Ivoire, and one of the largest in the French speaking world. This vibrant and busy metropolis is situated between lagoons and waterways and overlooks the Atlantic Ocean. Originally Abidjan had more humble beginnings as a small fishing village eventually becoming the capital of the French colony in 1900. Since then it has experienced remarkable growth with shiny skyscrapers confirming the city as the beating economic heart of the nation. Abidjan has few must see tourist attractions but its waterfront location, markets and museums make it a city of interesting contrasts.

Day 2 - Abidjan – Bouake (Domestic flight)
In the morning transfer to the domestic airport for your internal flight to Bouake. On arrival, transfer to your hotel for a late lunch. Your boarding pass will be given in hand to you by your guide. Later on, we go on a short tour around the city. Overnight at Hotel Mon Afrik or similar. (BLD)

Day 3 - Bouake – Kong (Approximate driving time: five hours)
This morning we visit villages of the Baulé people, known for their intricate handicrafts. Here, we witness the Goli mask dance, where participants wear round-shaped ‘lunar’ masks, surmounted by two horns, representing the spirit of the bush. In the afternoon we drive north, leaving the main road and taking a rough track to Kong, an ancient trading centre, once capital of the Kong Empire. Along the way the landscape changes as we enter sub-Saharan Sahel, a dry savannah with baobab trees. Overnight at Auberge de Kong or similar. (BLD)

Baulé people
The Baulé people are of Akan lineage originating from Ghana. The Baulé have retained in common with their cousins the Ashanti comprising of a complex social hierarchy and have expanded their own cultural traditions based on those of the surrounding native villages. Their rich production of handicrafts summarises these differences: fine statues that represent the world of the spirits, weaving-loom pulleys, and masks.

Kong
The origins of Kong date back to the 12th century, when this ancient kingdom emerged as a trading centre for merchants from the Mali Empire, who began trading in the territory or the Senufo people. Tradition wants Kong to be the place which gave its origins to merchants known as ‘Diola’. The Diola transformed Kong into an important trading point, halfway between the Sahara salt caravans and exports from the southern forests.

Day 4 - Kong - Ferkessedougou – Korhogo (Approximate driving time: three hours)
Today, we drive to Ferkessedougou in northern Ivory Coast, the largest city on the north/south road leading to border crossings with Mali and Burkina Faso. The town is a regional centre for the trading of zebu cattle. From Ferkessedougou, we drive to a remote village to witness ancient iron smelting techniques performed by local blacksmiths. The process is a rare example of traditional iron metallurgy utilising ‘tribal technology’ methods unchanged since Africa’s first iron age. The iron ore comes from local mines and is milled manually. An adobe furnace is loaded with layers of charcoal, set alight and aerated by bellows. The firing lasts all night, so we leave the blacksmiths and travel to our hotel in Korhogo, a town that dates from the 13th century and is the capital for the Senoufo people. Overnight Hotel Olympe or similar basic accommodation. (BLD)

Day 5 - Korhogo (Approximate driving time: two hours)
This morning we return to the blacksmiths’ village. The sealed base of the clay furnace is broken to extract the iron bloom which is then pounded into a powder, poured into a crucible and melted in a bellows-driven forge. Liquid iron is transferred into moulds before being again heated in the forge, hammered and wrought into the desired shape. Afterwards we head back to Korhogo, visit the town’s craft market before attending a Boloy, or panther dance. The dance is performed by recently initiated young men who celebrating the end of a period of isolation in the sacred forest. Overnight at Hotel Olympe or similar. (BLD)
Korhogo
The history of this town dates back to the 13th Century, and today is the capital of the Senufo, the tribe that has produced some of the greatest artworks in Africa in almost every field – sculpture, weaving, painting and blacksmith.

Senufo People
The Senufo are renowned for their complex initiation rites. Poro, the initiation of young men, is a long process which takes 21 years to be completed. It is the passage from youth to adulthood and it consists in learning the social and religious secrets that turn a young boy into a genuine Senufo man.

Day 6 - Korhogo – Boundiali (Approximate driving time: three hours)
Today we explore the villages of the Senoufo people who closely guard secret techniques used in the production of their handicrafts. Elsewhere, we admire the village’s large clay granaries and ornate sacred houses decorated by bas-relief carvings. Continuing the journey, we explore a region traversed by Fulani nomads and their zebu herds in search of pastures. En route we visit some Fulani villages and hope to be invited into the houses where we’ll experience warm hospitality. Later in the afternoon we attend the spectacular Ngoro dance, the dance of the virgins, part of the Senoufo Poro women’s initiation ceremony. Overnight at Hotel Le Paysan or similar – the most basic hotel of the tour, with no better alternatives available in the area. (BLD)

Day 7 - Boundiali – Odienne (Approximate driving time: five hours)
In the morning we travel to meet people of the Malinké ethnic group. Dressed in traditional costume, carrying shotguns covered with amulets, hunters accompany us on foot into the savannah, offering a brief introduction to locally occurring medicinal plants. At a Malinké village the hunters put their guns down and dance to the rhythm of the tam-tam, proudly demonstrating their resistance to fire and knives. Don’t try this at home. Overnight Hotel Les Frontieres or similar. (BLD)

The Malinké
In the vicinity of Odienne live the Malinké, descendants of the old empire of Mali. Among the great names of the history of these families is Samory Touré, a warrior that in this region alone found great support against the advance of the colonists. Among the warriors, those of the hunter-gatherer communities of the Dozo stand out for their courage on the battlefield and their mystic power that is still transmitted today during a long initiation process. Although nowadays there are no battles to fight, the respect given to this lineage has continued unabated. The Dozo (hunters) are considered to be a kind of local police. They are the guardian angels that watch over the villages to keep evil people away and act as mediators in disputes; they are also considered great healers thanks to their wide knowledge of plants and animals.

Day 8 - Odienne – Man (Approximate driving time: five hours)
Today is devoted to meeting the Yacuba people, perhaps better known as the Dan. We visit hillside villages characterised by large round huts with thatched roofs. Later, we experience a traditional Dan mask dance. As we journey south, Mount Tonkpi 1,123m, the highest peak in the mountains of Man, comes into view we will approach Man itself. Overnight Hotel Les Cascades or similar (BLD)

The Dan People
The Dan is an ethnolinguistic people of west-central Cote D’Ivoire and Liberia. They are also known as Gio or Yakuba. Some of the houses of the Dan are decorated with frescos made by women during ceremonial periods, while the men gather in a big hut to recycle iron scraps in the form of a hoe, using old scraps as a hammer and anvil. Masks are the most important art form of the Dan and are used in many rituals. The masks of the Dan appear on long stilts with dances involving memorable acrobatics and normally the participation of the most of the village under the watchful gaze of the elders in charge of the cult.
Man
The capital of the We and Guéré ethnic groups, scenic Man extends from the feet of 18 green mountains, some of which are in the middle of the city and separate different quarters. Man is one of the primary agricultural regions of the country with Cocoa, rice, coffee, and plantain plantations.

Day 9 - Man – Danane – Man (Approximate driving time: six hours)
This morning we journey from Man to see nearby waterfalls and remarkable liana bridges. Afterwards there’s free time in Man to relax or explore local craft shops. Later, we’ll be able to enjoy dancing in a nearby village of the Guéré people. Overnight Hotel Les Cascades or similar. (BLD)

Liana Bridges
The rainforest that stretches between Ivory Coast and Liberia is famous for its big liana bridges. For the local population, the origin of these bridges is shrouded in mystery. They are built secretly in only one night by young men being initiated. Crossing them is not difficult provided that the taboos imposed by tradition are respected and that heavy loads are not carried on the head or babies tied to one’s back, as the local young women used to do.

Day 10 - Man – Daloa Man – Daloa
(full day driving including stops in the forest and time for the dances)
This morning we travel by 4x4 to discover a remote forest region where the arrival of foreigners is a rare event. We cross wooden bridges before reaching isolated settlements of the Guéré ethnic group, where we experience a Jongleurs performance, an ancient tradition that is now vanishing. Drumming will announce the start where initiated girls with their faces painted in white Kaolin perform a unique acrobatic dance. This afternoon we continue to Daloa. Overnight Hotel La Grace or similar (BLD)

IMPORTANT NOTE: For the 5th August 2020 departure the schedule of days 11 and 12 will be adapted to fit with the events of the festival.

Day 11 - Daloa - Yamoussoukro (approx. 5 hours driving including stop for dancing masks)
In the Daloa region we attend the dancing masks of the Guro People, known as Zaouli. The Zaouli was created in the 1950s, reportedly inspired by a girl names ‘Djela Lou Zaouli’. This afternoon we continue to Yamoussoukro. Visit the Basilica of the Virgin of Peace which is a copy of that of St Peter’s in Rome. The marble and the stained glass that are characteristic of this church make it an excellent monument to the history of the country. Overnight Hotel Le President or similar (BLD)

Yamoussoukro
The city of Yamoussoukro (or Yamkro as it is also known) is Côte d’Ivoire’s somewhat odd administrative capital. The city was little more than a village only half a century ago but it has seen a dramatic transformation in a short space of time. The former president Félix Houphouet-Boigny began a programme of ambitious projects in the place of his birth in the 1960’s culminating in a number of grandiose administrative buildings which seem somewhat out of keeping with the rest of the country. The focal point of the city is the Basilica of our Lady of Peace which is reputedly the largest place of Christian worship on the planet and is bigger than St Peter’s in Rome.

Day 12 - Yamoussoukro – Abidjan – Grand Bassam (Approximate driving time: five hours)
After breakfast, depart to Abidjan. On arrival enter the town by the new quarter of Youpugon and visit the Plateau district and also cross the lagoon by boat for a view of the Plateau from a water’s perspective. We visit the lively market at Treichville as well as the residential area of Cocody containing interesting colonial architecture. We will also visit the national museum which contains a fine collection reflecting the rich heritage of 62 ethnic groups. We then drive south towards the Ebrié Lagoon and the Atlantic Ocean. We spend the afternoon exploring Grand Bassam with its crumbling colonial architecture. The old post office is a jewel of French colonial architecture and we visit the Costume Museum, in the former governor’s palace, with its large outer staircase is a true architectural gem and its unique collection of tribal costumes, masks, ornaments and ethnographic photographs gives an interesting perception of the country history and culture. Overnight in Grand Bassam at the Hotel Afrikland or similar. (BLD)

Grand Bassam
Once the former rich capital of the French colony, Grand Bassam is a town built on a line of sand between the lagoon and the ocean. It has many preserved colonial buildings and during the colonial times it became the maritime leisure resort for the Abidjanese.

Day 13 - Grand Bassam – Abidjan - Departure from Abidjan
We spend some more time exploring Grand Bassam and, later in the afternoon we transfer back to Abidjan. A room will be available for you to freshen up before your transfer to the airport and your onward flight. Please do not book a flight departing before 18:00 today. Day use at Hotel Onomo or similar. (BL)

Important Information

Foreign Travel Advice Warnings

We constantly monitor the advice posted by the British Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO). In particular we will always advise clients of any travel warnings. At present parts of Ivory Coast that we travel to are subject a travel advisory and you should check the website before placing your booking https://www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice/cote-d-ivoire Please feel free to contact us should you have any specific concerns or would like to know in detail what measures are being taken to ensure visits remain trouble free and without incident.

It should be noted that this information applies to British citizens. Other nationals are asked to check the current position of their respective government.

Accommodation and Meals

Hotel Check-in Times

As a general rule most hotels will allow guests to check-in from 2pm. Please note that the price of your tour does not include guaranteed early check-in. Therefore please advise us if you would like to ensure that your room is available for an earlier arrival. This is particularly relevant on the first day of the tour and for early morning arrivals. One option is to pre-book and pay for an extra night at the beginning of your tour which will guarantee your accommodation is available irrespective of what time you arrive. Please contact us for information and costs.

It should also be noted that on many of our tours we have set-aside Day 1 of the itinerary as an ‘arrival day’. For this reason and because tour participants are likely to be arriving at different times, and often from different countries, guided sightseeing or other activities are not included. If you are arriving early or before the start date of the tour and would like to organise some extra arrangements on a private basis please contact us.

Solo Travellers and Twin-Bedded Rooms

Please note that in the Ivory Coast we are unable to offer solo travellers the option of sharing with another traveller. Hotels in the Ivory Coast do not offer twin bedded rooms and some accommodation on the tour do not accept travellers of the same sex to share the same room. Therefore, couples sharing a room should expect double bedded accommodation, and we must ask all solo travellers to pay the applicable single room supplement. Should you have a specific request, then please contact us.
Accommodation Rating
On this tour you will be staying mostly in small hotels varying from comfortable hotels where available and elsewhere a little more basic, especially in the North. All accommodation has private bathroom facilities and air conditioning or a fan. Some hotels will have restaurant and/or bar. Swimming pools are available at some properties as well.

Most of the accommodation only accept payments in cash – please make sure to have has much small-denomination banknotes as possible, especially in the North as often you will find out that hotels do not have enough change available.

We welcome solo travellers and single rooms will be allocated subject to the applicable tour supplement. Please note that on occasions you may not always be allocated a double room, as some hotels have designated single rooms. These may be smaller in size. However, the supplement payable takes this into consideration.

Service Standards
Please note that standards of service in much of Africa are not comparable to those of more developed countries, especially in the more off the beaten track locations. Service in Ivory Coast is often slow and lacks the same attention to detail, and your patience and understanding will be appreciated.

Food & Drink
The daily meal basis is shown in the tour itinerary; breakfast (B), lunch (L) and dinner (D). Please note that lunch may be a picnic. Drinks are not included and will be payable locally in cash. Some days, you will have a picnic lunch.

Dietary Requirements
If you have any special dietary requirements you must notify us at the time of booking. While we will make every effort to cater for you, we cannot guarantee that this will be possible.

Foreign Exchange
ATM Availability: Available in large towns and cities but we do not recommend relying on them
Credit and Debit Card Acceptance: Cards are not widely accepted, and definitely not of use in the North
Local Currency: Franc CFA
Current exchange rate (Jan. 2020): 1 Euro = 655 CFA - 1000 CFA = 1.50 EUR // 1 USD = 580 CFA
Recommended Currency for Exchange: Euro (preferred) or US Dollar
Where to Exchange: The best is to exchange at the airport on arrival, or in Abidjan on Day 2. Your guide will advise you and assist. Other locations on the tour where it is possible to change are Bouaké, Korhogo, Man and Daloa Please try to obtain as small denomination banknotes as possible as it is difficult to obtain change sometimes.

Budgeting for your Tour
You will need some extra money to cover meals and drinks not included in the tour price, any optional sightseeing, souvenirs and items of a personal nature such as laundry.

Food
The costs for meals may vary depending upon location, type of restaurant and number of courses eaten and so the prices given are an average guide. Local restaurants located off the beaten track may be less expensive, whereas an upmarket restaurant located in the centre of a major city may charge more. On this tour, only meals in Abidjan are at your own expenses. Consider bringing snacks with you as there are a couple of days where you will arrive quite late for lunch.
In Abidjan - Lunch: £10 / Dinner: £13

Drink
The prices for drinks can vary greatly depending upon location and the prices detailed below are an average guide. In general you would expect that drinks purchased in a supermarket or local bar to be less expensive, whilst drinks in an upmarket bar or restaurant may be more expensive.

Tipping – Guide and Drivers
Tipping is commonly recognised as a way of rewarding guides and drivers for good service. If you are happy with your guide and driver, please consider leaving a tip for them. You should allow per person around USD 4-6 per day for your driver and USD 6-10 per day for your guide.

Joining your Tour

Flight Information
Our advertised prices do not include the cost of international flights. Please contact us if you would like a quotation to book a ‘flight inclusive’ package. Your flight inclusive package will be fully protected by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA) ATOL protection scheme.

Joining Tour Abroad
Customers booked on the ‘Land Only’ arrangements will receive a free airport transfer, both on the advertised start and end dates of the tour. In addition arrival and/or departure transfers will be provided in conjunction with any pre and/or post tour accommodation that has been booked through Undiscovered Destinations. In all other cases charges may apply for airport transfers. Please advise the date, time and flight number for your arrival/departure. If we have not been advised of this information at least 2 weeks before travel, then you will be required to make your own way to the hotel on Day 1 of your tour.

Travel Insurance
It is a condition of booking with Undiscovered Destinations that you have adequate valid travel insurance. It is your responsibility to arrange appropriate travel insurance and ensure you have read and understood the full terms and conditions of your travel insurance policy to ensure that you are covered for all activities you intend to undertake whilst on the tour, including all optional activities. Your Insurance Policy must fully cover you for medical expenses and emergency repatriation to your home country and be valid for the entire duration of your holiday.

Visa Information
Visitors from most countries, including UK, EU and US visitors require a visa for entering Ivory Coast. This needs to be obtained in advance and an e-visa is available to most nationalities, to be requested from this official website: https://snedai.com/e-visa/. We are able to provide the necessary documentation for you to be able to apply. On arrival at the airport in Abidjan, you will have to collect your visa in the e-visa office before or after that you go through the custom controls.

Visa regulations can frequently change and therefore we recommend that you check with your nearest embassy for the most up to date details.

Passports
It is your responsibility to ensure that you are in possession of a full passport, valid for at least six months after the date of return to your country. We strongly advise that your passport contains a minimum of two blank pages, as this may be a requirement of the local immigration authorities. In addition certain countries will stipulate that the two blank pages are opposite each other. If you are unable to meet these requirements you may be refused boarding by your airline or denied entry by the immigration authorities.

For specific information about the requirements for your destination please check with the country’s embassy or consulate. Alternatively UK citizens can visit www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice

Bags Inspection on arrival and departure

The custom officer may need to check your bags and in this case you will be sent to a large room where you need to open the bag and let them make sure you are not carrying anything. Once cleared you can go.

It is strictly forbidden to take out of the country ivory and related objects. An accurate screening of your luggage will be done at the airport before departure. Fines may apply in case they find something suspicious. If you buy wooden mask/s, we strongly advise you to store it in your checked-in luggage and not to carry it with you in your hand luggage.

Vaccinations & Protection

As with travel to most parts of Africa, we strongly recommend that you contact your doctor’s surgery or a specialist travel clinic for up-to-date information, advice and the necessary vaccinations. For a visit of less than one month, almost certainly you will be advised to have immunisations against the following: Diphtheria and Tetanus, Hepatitis A, Typhoid, Meningitis.

A yellow Fever vaccination certificate is compulsory to enter the country and is checked on arrival.

The legal status and regulation of some medicines prescribed or purchased in your home country can be different in other countries. If you’re travelling with prescription or over-the-counter medicine, read this guidance from NaTHNaC on best practice when travelling with medicines. For further information on the legal status of a specific medicine, you’ll need to contact the embassy, high commission or consulate of the country or territory you’re travelling to.

Preparing for your tour

Climate

The region experiences two distinct seasons and travel is possible all year. The dry season runs from October until April, and the wet season from May until September – these can change by a few weeks either side depending on climate variations. The rains, although heavy, usually take the form of short sharp bursts. In higher elevated forests it can be cool at night and in the early morning so you should be prepared accordingly.

Clothing

Ivory Coast is very warm in general and so light cotton clothes are generally a good idea. You should also bring a hat – the sun is very strong here, even in the winter. In general, shorts are acceptable, although there may be occasions when it is appropriate to where long trousers. Long trousers also provide better protection against insects and are recommended for nature walks. Consider bringing your swimsuit if you wish to use the swimming pools at the hotels.

Equipment

You should bring a first aid kit with you. Whilst there is no undue cause for alarm, travellers are best advised to travel well-prepared: adequately immunized, with sufficient supplies of prescription drugs, along with a medical kit. Sun cream/sunblock is a must. Insect repellent, including a bite spray will also be useful to have. Please also take a torch or flashlight for poorly lit areas or for any unexpected electricity outages.

Footwear
Comfortable walking shoes are recommended, as well as a pair of sandals for general travelling days.

Luggage on tour
Your luggage should not exceed 20kgs (44lbs). One large suitcase/rucksack, and one small hand luggage rucksack is acceptable.

For the domestic flight with Air Cote d’Ivoire, one checked-in bag up to 23kg plus one small hand luggage up to 7kgs are allowed per person.

Access to the Internet
Kindly note that access to the Internet via Wi-Fi is available in every location on this tour. Wi-Fi is usually always available at the restaurant or main lobby of the accommodation but in some places, it may be very slow. In every instance, we cannot guarantee that Wi-Fi connection will be working when you stay at the properties.

Driving times
The driving times stated in the itinerary are given in the best of faith. Driving times may on occasion be longer due to unforeseen circumstances such as poor weather, road construction activity, mechanical problems etc. Most of the roads in the Ivory Coast are poorly maintained and asphalt is rare, especially in the Northern part of the country.

Environmental Responsibility
We are committed to reducing our impact on the environment and protect its resources and the people of Ivory Coast. It is quite difficult to do so in Africa, however on this tour, we are trying our best to minimize the production of non-disposable rubbish, we try to be as “green” as possible and to preserve the friendliness of the Ivorian people. On this tour single-use plastic bottles of water will not be handed out. Water will be provided from a large container. We kindly ask you to bring your own water bottles/flask with you on this trip. If you have any concerns please contact us.

Electric Supply & Plugs
In Ivory Coast the power sockets are of type C and E with two circular pins. The standard voltage is 230 V and the standard frequency is 50 Hz.

Language
The official language is French and many local dialects are then used from one region to the next one. Very few people speak English.

Tour Itinerary Versions
Please ensure that you have an up-to-date copy of these tour notes immediately before you travel, as from time to time our itineraries may be amended, either for operational reasons or in response to feedback from customers. You will be informed of any major changes to your tour but small changes may just be added to these tour notes. These tour notes were updated on 30th January 2020.
